

Commander Liz Griffin

Commander Liz Griffin was hired by the Long Beach Police Department in 1992. She has worked all Patrol Divisions, was a Field Training Officer, Violent Crimes Detective, Youth Services Detective, North Division Bike Officer, Administrative Sergeant, Internal Affairs Sergeant, Watch Commander, Contract Services Lieutenant, Administrative Lieutenant to the Deputy Chief of Patrol, and the Commander for the Security Services Division. Currently, she is the Commander of the East Patrol Division where she manages over 100 police officers and an administrative staff.

Commander Griffin holds a Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice from California State University, Fullerton, and a Master of Science in Emergency Services Administration from California State University, Long Beach. She is a graduate of the F.B.I. National Academy Class #237, and has attended the Supervisory Leadership Institute, Delinquency Control Institute, POST Management Course, and LAPD West Point Leadership Program.

She is a member of the California Police Officer's Association, F.B.I. National Academy Association (FBINAA), and the Long Beach Police Command Officer's Association. She is the liaison for the GLBTQ Advisory Group to the Chief of Police. She has organized community and fundraising events such as the Toy Patrol Christmas Drive and the Annual Daryle Black Softball Tournament which benefits the LBPD Explorer Program. She is a committee member for Copswest, FBINAA annual re-trainer, and a member of the Long Beach Police Department Historical Society Committee.