

CITY PROSECUTOR

The Long Beach City Prosecutor's Office provides the finest municipal criminal prosecution services for all persons in Long Beach pursuing of the highest standards of justice by balancing the needs of society with those of the individual.

Department Goals

- Maintain the highest level of criminal justice initiatives during this period of economic challenge.
- Complete the integration of the Community Prosecution Unit (IMPACT) as a full partner with neighborhood stakeholders and law enforcement and thereby push the scope of services provided beyond simply processing criminal cases.
- Continue to improve technology Interoperability and data sharing between Long Beach Police Department, the Superior Courts and Prosecutor's Office.

Accomplishments Challenges and Opportunities

Accomplishments

- Expanded the anti-graffiti program and added TripWire camera to suppression efforts.
- IMPACT and Neighborhood Improvement Strategies make impressive gains in collaboration on quality of life issues in all Intensive Code Enforcement (ICE) areas.
- Worked with Long Beach Police Department Gang Unit to aggressively pursue Penal Code §186.22 prosecutions in conjunction with gang injunction violations.

Challenges

- Resource limitations, Gang and Graffiti crimes.
- Courtroom congestion and lack of Bench Officers.

Opportunities

- Improved Inter-agency collaboration, coordination and information sharing leading to more efficient and effective prosecutions.

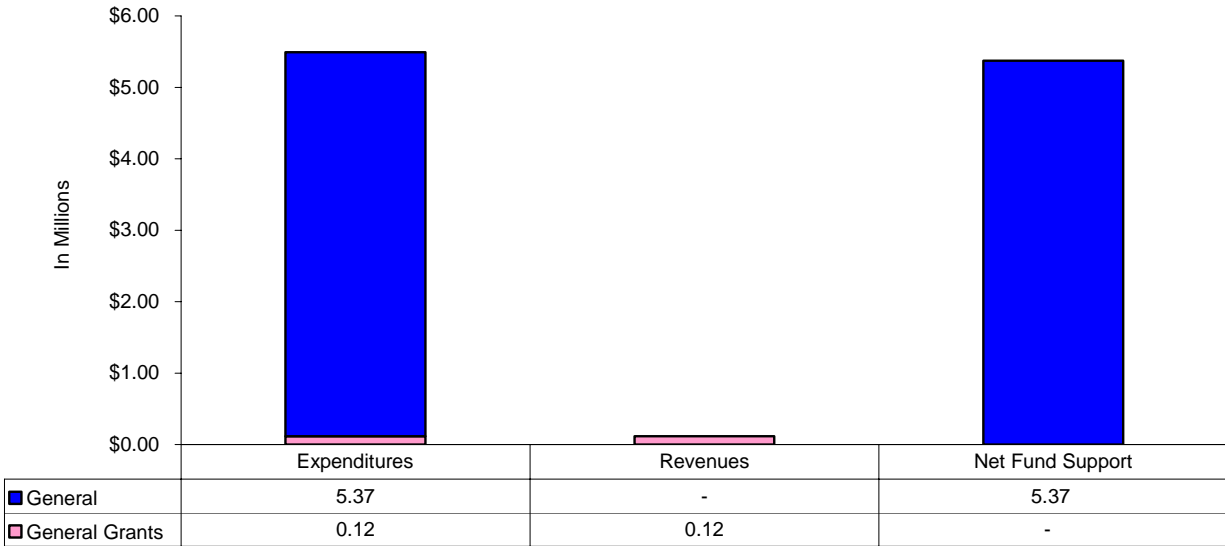

Notes

The City Prosecutor is an independently elected official and head of the Department.

Community Development Block Grant funds support $98,500 in Department costs for Intensive Code Enforcement (ICE) prosecutions. These funds are transferred to the City Prosecutor's Office when earned and based on an hourly time accounting provided to the Community Development Department.
