

City of Long Beach List of Neighborhood Groups Listing Criteria

Purpose: The List of Neighborhood Groups (the List) is used to maintain a current listing of neighborhood associations and community groups in Long Beach. The List is published and maintained by the Neighborhood Resource Center (NRC) of the City of Long Beach's Neighborhood Services Bureau (NSB). The objective of the List is to improve communication among the many neighborhood organizations and between the organizations and the City's various Departments. It is also a tool organizations can use for networking purposes within the City.

Listing details: The List will publish the name of the organization, number of members, website, contact email, and meeting information.

Listing criteria:

Organizations may be listed if they are established as one of the following:

- Neighborhood Associations (with neighborhood boundaries)
- Neighborhood Watch Groups (Must be registered with the Long Beach Police Department's Community Relations Division)
- Citywide Community Organizations
- Homeowners, Condominium, Co-Operative or Own-Your-Own Owners Associations (i.e. HOAs)
- Neighborhood Serving Business Associations
- Cultural Organizations

Organizations may NOT listed if they are one of the following:

- For profit Businesses or Commercial Enterprises
- Non-Profit Organizations that are Not Neighborhood Groups
- Political Organizations
- Religious Organizations

For more information please contact Jason Fraley at the Neighborhood Resource Center at (562) 570-1010.

