

Join us for a

TSUNAMI WALK

The City of Long Beach Department of Disaster Preparedness wants to mobilize and educate the community about tsunami evacuation zones, tsunami warning signs and how you can plan ahead in case of a tsunami.

Saturday, March 17th

Walk begins at 10:30 AM

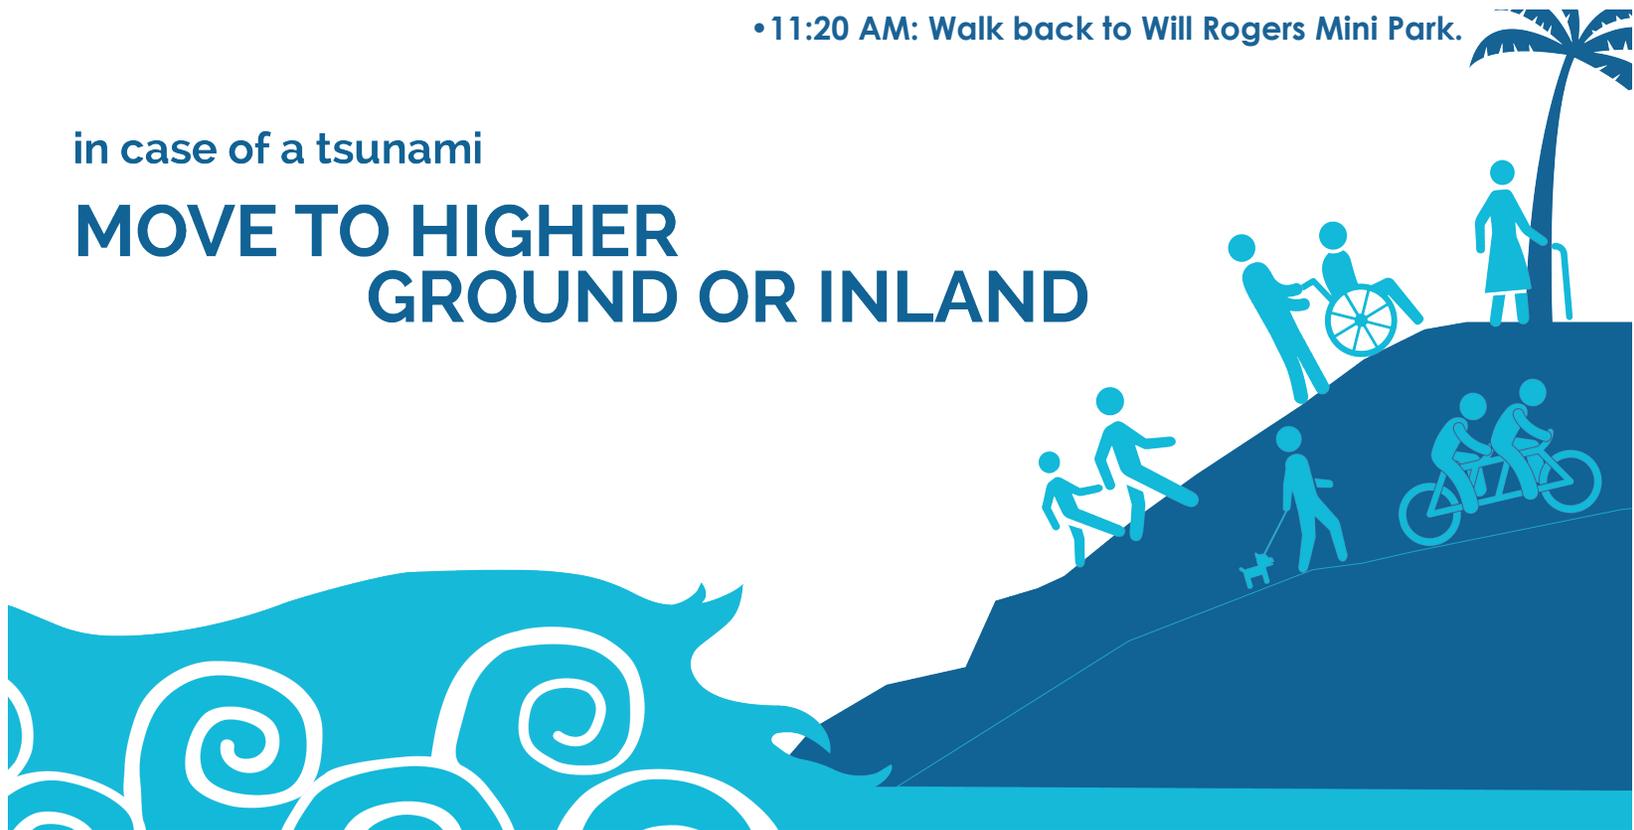

At Will Rogers Mini Park
located at Nieto Ave &
Appian Way.

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

- 9:00 AM: Preparedness fair starts at Will Rogers Mini Park.
- 10:30 AM: Welcome from District 3 Councilwoman Suzie Price and Director of Disaster Preparedness and Emergency Communications, Reggie Harrison.
- 10:45 AM: Educational tsunami evacuation walk from Will Rogers Mini Park to the Recreation Park Community Center.
- 11:00 AM: Presentation/Q&A with Jason Ballmann, Southern California Earthquake Center and Yvette LaDuke and Kevin Miller, CalOES at Recreation Park Community Center.
- 11:20 AM: Walk back to Will Rogers Mini Park.

in case of a tsunami

MOVE TO HIGHER GROUND OR INLAND

CITY OF LONG BEACH

ALERT
LONG BEACH

SC/EC