Past Events

Mental Health America's Annual Golden Ducky Awards

Last Friday, I attended Mental Health America's 2016 Golden Ducky Awards Ceremony. This annual event recognizes both the achievements of MHA clients and community partners who have helped make the MHA Village a success. I've worked with MHA since 2008 when they were part of the plan to convert Schroeder Hall to an East Division police substation. Information about the MHA Village can be found at this link.

Southwest Airlines

Last Sunday, an event was held at the Long Beach Airport to launch the new Southwest Airline's service. I did not attend and wasn't able to take a photo, but I always welcome the opportunity to use a vintage Southwest shot in our newsletter (see below).

On a more serious note, it will be interesting to see if residents detect a difference in noise levels between the Southwest B737-700's and the JetBlue A-320's. LGB Noise Office, Ron Reeves, provided us with some excellent, very detailed information on the engines used by the two aircraft. He indicated that the CFM engines on the B737 have different tonal characteristics as compared to the V2500 engines on the A320's. Overall, he feels the response will likely be, "The B737s are about the same as the A320s."

JetBlue Fined "Only" $9,900 for the Month of May

We used the word "only" because the $9,900 amount is down from the $16,500 total for the month of April. Thanks to LGB's Ryan McMullan, Airport Operations Specialist - Noise Analyst II, for providing the May report: Two JetBlue operations were conducted after 11:00 PM, and these operations resulted in Consent Decree violations of $3,000 and $6,000. Each quarter, the first six Consent Decree violations are $3,000 each, and subsequent Consent Decree violations, beyond the first six, result in a $6,000 fine. For the month of June, each Consent Decree violation will result in a fine of $6,000. In addition to the two Consent Decree violations in May, JetBlue conducted three operations (that did not qualify as unanticipated delays) between the hours of 10:00 PM and 11:00 PM that resulted in a total of $900 in fines. In entirety, JetBlue had a total of $9,900 in fines for the month of May.

CD4 Monthly Meeting with EPD's Commander Griffin

On Monday, I had my monthly briefing with Commander Liz Griffin at the East Patrol Division's new substation. In addition to covering recent crime trends, we discussed plans for future CD4 events. One would be a crime prevention meeting at our regularly scheduled monthly gathering on Tuesday, July 26th at the Los Altos Library. Other plans would include the Commander's quarterly meeting at Orizaba Park and a crime prevention/reporting meeting for Cambodian Town businesses along the Anaheim Corridor.

Leadership Long Beach Institute Class of 2016

On Monday night, I attended the Leadership Long Beach "Class Project Presentations" at the Long Beach Playhouse. This was the final event in the LLB Institute's intensive 10-month program for community leaders wishing to improve their understanding of the opportunities, challenges and ways they can contribute to the Long Beach community. To learn more about LLB, you can visit their website.

Hooman Toyota Vacates Traffic Circle Property

On Tuesday, Hooman Toyota received their business license (as West Coast Toyota) for their new location on Willow, and they began moving cars off the lot. They also had hand-held signs around, and in, the traffic circle announcing the move. In next week's newsletter, we'll feature a story on the history of this iconic site at 4401 E. Pacific Coast Highway. We'll also provide an update on what is planned for the future on this parcel.

Official Results from Tuesday's Election

Thank you to everyone who participated in Tuesday's Local, County, State and National elections. Long Beach voters approved Measure A, the sales tax measure, with 59.5 percent of the Vote. Measure B, a companion ballot initiative that required part of the new sales tax revenue to be put in a rainy-day fund, also received approval with 57.4 percent of the vote. In addition to Measure AB, voters approved Measure LB, a $850 million bond measure for the Long Beach Community College District. You can view all election results on the Long Beach City Clerk's website or on the LA County website.

Wednesday evening, I was at the Carpenter Center for the Long Beach Police Foundation's awards ceremony. This annual event recognizes LBPD sworn officers, civilian employees and private citizens for outstanding achievement. Individuals were honored for activities ranging from acts of heroism to outstanding demonstrations of civic duty. For the Press-Telegram coverage of the event, click on this link.

Tomorrow, Saturday, June 11th, I will be attending the LBFD graduation ceremony for the Recruit Firefighter's Class of 2016A.

CD4 Public Works Updates

The repave projects on Atherton St. and 10th St. are wrapping up, and work continues on Park Avenue between Atherton and PCH. Next up will be Roswell Avenue between Anaheim St. and 11th St. The street, curbs and driveways have already been marked for demolition. As the photos below indicate, it won't take too much effort to demo the curbs. Another location that is receiving improvements is the intersection of 11th and Junipero. There are a few ADA compliance challenges, but we plan on bringing each corner up to current standards.

A Return to the Long Beach Home Companion

On June 15 at 5:30 P.M., the Long Beach Playhouse will present the sixth annual Return to the Long Beach Home Companion at the offices of Keesal Young and Logan. This truly unique event is a fundraiser for the Playhouse which at 87 years is one of the city's oldest arts organizations. Gazette Executive Editor, Harry Saltzgaver writes a hilarious script, complete with sound effects, witty banter and bad puns. It's performed by the Long Beach Political Players, who this year are: Mayor Beverly O'Neill, Doug Haubert, Gigi Fusco Meese, Michelle Molina, Doug Otto, Al Austin, Lou Anne Bynum, Evan Anderson Braude, Stacy Mungo, Justin Rudd, Mitchell Nunn, and myself! Visit the Long Beach Play House website for more details.

"Hole in the Wall" Restaurant on Palo Verde

It was great to see repairs being made to the outside wall of Avenue No. 3 Pizza on Tuesday. A car had crashed into the building, and the English "half-timber" architectural style made the repairs a little more complex. The restaurant at Palo Verde and Stearns was built over 50 years ago, and it was originally called Pizza 'n' Stein. The English pub-style theme was popularized by Shakey's Pizza in the early 1960's. For many years, "east of Palo Verde" 4th district voters have used Avenue No. 3 Pizza as their polling site.
