

What's happening in the Fourth this week!

DARYL SUPERNAW
COUNCILMAN, FOURTH DISTRICT
CITY OF LONG BEACH
GO FOURTH!

November 4, 2016

Dear Neighbor,

Thank you for taking the time to read our Fourth District weekly newsletter. It is emailed every Friday afternoon and provides updates on past and future events throughout our council district. Please encourage your friends and neighbors to sign up to receive our publication by contacting the council office at: district4@longbeach.gov or (562) 570-4444.

Past Events

21st Annual Historical Society of LB Cemetery Tour

Last Saturday, I had the honor of presenting my own family's history at the 21st Annual Historical Cemetery Tour. Thank you to the Historical Society of Long Beach for the invitation and wonderful opportunity to present at my grandparents' gravesite. I delivered a total of six presentations between 11:40 and 1:40 p.m. Thanks to Evan Braude, my presentation emcee, and thanks to all the attendees.

Huge Turnout at WESCA Halloween Carnival

On Monday evening, WESCA hosted their annual Halloween Carnival at Orizaba Park. A big thank you to Jan Ward for all her work in organizing the event. Thanks also go to the many volunteers and Parks & Rec staff for their hard work. Special thanks to Gladys Kaiser and

L to R: Jan Ward, Darcie Henning and Margaret Madden

Jan Ward and Toni Ford-Hixon, Orizaba Park Supervisor

Harvest Festival & Celebration at Temple Baptist Church

On Halloween night, I stopped by the Temple Baptist Church Harvest Festival to check out the activities. Pastor Russell and the many volunteers do an amazing job of organizing this event. They provide a wonderful, fun alternative to trick-or-treating for the neighborhood kids. Thank you TBC for all the great work you do in the community.

Deacon Dwayne Holt, Councilman Supernaw and Pastor Torie Russell, Sr.

Pancho's Mexican Restaurant Celebrates 50th Anniversary

On Tuesday morning, we had the great privilege of honoring one of our favorite 4th District businesses, Pancho's Mexican Restaurant. For 50 years, generations of local residents, including thousands of CSULB students, have enjoyed Pancho's great food and atmosphere. On hand to congratulate Pancho were many longtime customers including 7th District Councilman, Roberto Uranga, East Division Patrol Resource Officer, Jesus Espinoza and Parks & Rec Commissioner, Ben Goldberg. The CD4 office provided a cake and mariachi music, and Pancho used his 1966 menu prices for the day. Thanks to all those who joined us for the celebration. Congratulations Pancho!

Officer Jesus Espinoza, Councilman Supernaw, Frank "Pancho" Flores cutting his anniversary cake and Councilmen Uranga and Supernaw presenting Pancho with certificates of recognition.

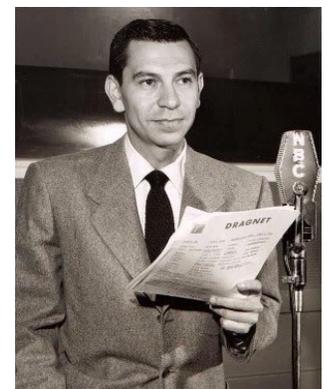

Native American Heritage Month Celebration at City Hall

On Tuesday night, for the first time at City Council, we celebrated Native American Heritage Month. It was quite an honor to sponsor this very special event that we trust will become an annual tradition. Special thanks to Lbfd Public Information Officer, Jake Heflin along with Craig Stone and Cindy Alvitre from CSULB for their work in organizing the celebration. Also thanks to the many dancers and musicians who participated. To commemorate the event, I presented hand-painted, Osage feather lapel pins to my City Council colleagues and to the event organizers.

Global College Radio Day

Long Beach City College (LBCC) is honored to be 1 of 12 College Radio Stations worldwide to participate in the Global College Radio Day. I was able to stop by this morning to greet the crowd during the pre-show kick off! The LBCC Jazz Big Band performed for the international broadcast, and the LB Police Officer Association grilled hot dogs for attendees. National awards will be given to college radio stations that best involve the community during this global celebration. For more information or to listen to the broadcast please visit their website.

Your Weekly News & Updates

20th Annual Veterans Day Parade

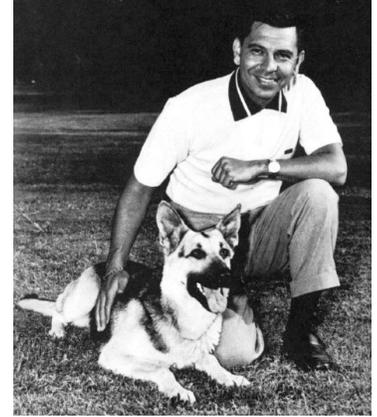

The 20th Annual Long Beach Veterans Day Parade is Saturday, November 5th. There are over 200 entrants participating this year! The Grand Marshal for the parade this year is retired U.S. Navy Capt. Braden J Phillips, with Honorary Grand Marshal Long Beach Police Officer and U.S. Marine Paul Del Rosario. I will be in the parade on a vintage fire engine with Long Beach Fire Chief, Mike Duree. Step-off for the parade is 10 a.m. at East Harding Street and Atlantic Avenue. After the parade, Vets Fest will commence in Houghton Park until 2 p.m. For more information, please visit the parade's website.

BARK Dogs in the Fourth!

Children of all ages are welcome to read to BARK's certified therapy dogs at the Long Beach Neighborhood Libraries.

Research shows that reading to friendly, non-judgmental dogs can increase reading skills and self-confidence. And it's FUN! Beach Animals Reading With Kids (BARK) dogs want to hear you read. BARK dogs will be visiting the Brewitt Library on Saturday, November 5th. Visit barkdogs.org to learn more.

63rd Cambodia Independence Celebration Next Week

The Royal Honorary Consulate General of Cambodia in Long Beach will be hosting a celebration in honor of the 63rd Anniversary Proclamation of Cambodia's Independence Day. The Fourth District is home to the eastern portion of Cambodia Town and to the Consulate General in Long Beach office at 3448 E. Anaheim St. I am honored to participate in their celebration next Wednesday evening.

Long Beach Playhouse Membership Drive

The Long Beach Playhouse will be hosting an Open House on Friday, November 14th. There will be free admission to the comedic Farce, Don't Dress for Dinner, tours of the facilities, raffles for fun prizes, free appetizers, cash car, and special offers on membership benefits. There is limited space. RSVP to info@lbplayhouse.org by tonight, November 4th.

Beach Streets Midtown

Midtown will spring to life on Saturday, Nov. 12, from 9:00 am to 3:00 pm, for the Beach Streets Midtown Open Street event along Anaheim Street from Orange Avenue to Pacific Coast Highway, and will feature thousands of people walking, bicycling and socializing on car-free streets. Beach Streets is an Open Streets event designed to showcase businesses & neighborhoods. For a single day, we close a major traffic corridor to cars & open the street to people walking & bicycling. The event attracts local residents & visitors from across the region to explore & discover the area at a slower "foot-traffic" pace. Previous Beach Streets events have attracted more than 40,000 people!

LBLL Challenger Division Sign Ups

Long Beach Little League Spring registration is open! Last year, LBLL announced the addition of a Challenger Division for their Spring 2016 season. FIS Study Will Not be Heard at City Council November 15th

Next Tuesday is Election Day, so our regularly scheduled city council meeting has been cancelled. The following meeting on November 15th had previously been mentioned as the date the FIS Study would be presented. Now, that date has been postponed to December 13th. I have stated publicly (along with the Press-Telegram) that this issue is far too important to come before council during the holiday season. We will keep you posted on the final decision on the date.

Open Studio Art Party

There will be an Open Studio Art Party at Luna Rising Art Studio on Saturday, November 19th. Come out to support local Long Beach artist as they display their creations from a range of disciplines. There will be live entertainment, refreshments and silent auction. The event will take place at 2102 Clark Ave from 4 p.m. - 9 p.m. Please visit their website for more information.
