Past Events

Acura Grand Prix Visits Visits Prisk Elementary

Eight elementary schools received visits on April 10th & 11th from a race car driver, race car and the Acura pace car. Prisk Elementary was the lucky CD4 school selected by event organizers for this annual Acura Grand Prix of Long Beach Educational Series. Students got to see a real race car and ask questions of driver, Nicolai Elghyan. I stopped by and got a group photo with the kindergarten classes. I also snapped the photo below of Principal, Beth Cohen who really got into the spirit next the the pace car with her checkered flag.

45th Annual Acura Grand Prix of Long Beach

Congratulations to Jim Michaelian, president and CEO of the Grand Prix Association of Long Beach, and his team for staging another terrific event. The transition to new title sponsor was absolutely seamless, and the Acura NSX made a pretty impressive pace car. Unfortunately, car #4 (the one I was rooting for) didn't win Sunday's race, but I did get to meet LA Chargers head coach, Anthony Lynn. He served as grand marshal for the race, and he happens to be a big fan of first responders. If you didn't see his 2019 Super Bowl Commercial on the topic, it's worth a watch (link below).

Fourth Council District Well Represented at Chamber Event

There was definitely a fourth district flair to yesterday's "Entrepreneur of the Year" luncheon hosted by the LB Area Chamber of Commerce. David Erickson, Founder and CEO of FreeConferenceCall.com, received the City National Bank 2019 Entrepreneur of the Year Award. His company, located on the Traffic Circle in the heart of the 4th district, is the second largest global conferencing provider in the world.

Recipient the of the Chick-fil-A Community Spirit Award was CD4 resident, Bruce DD Mac Rae. Bruce is the VP of State Gov't Affairs for UPS and is a tireless supporter of local organizations including CSULB athletics and the LB Police Foundation. Other awardees included Kevin & Kent Peterson and Dahn Tran. You can read about all the recipients at this link. Congratulation to all the award winners and Go Fourth!

Next on the Council Agenda

April 23rd | 3:30 pm | 333 W. Ocean Blvd

The City Council meeting will start at 5 p.m. in the council chamber on the ground floor of City Hall, located at 333 W. Ocean Blvd. City council meetings are broadcast live online and are also available on Channel 3 for Charter cable subscribers and Channel 21 for FIOS subscribers. Here are a few topics that will be discussed at Tuesday's city council meeting:

- The City Council will consider a recommendation to receive supporting documentation into the record, conclude the public hearing, and declare ordinance approving the change to the East Anaheim Street Parking and Business Improvement Area methodology of assessment, read the first time and laid over to the next regular meeting for final reading.
- The City Council will discuss a recommendation to request City Manager to work with the Financial Management Department to recognize businesses that are majority owned by people who identify as LGBTQ+, veterans, and people with disabilities in the City's procurement and purchasing process.

This is just a small selection of the topics to be covered at next week's city council meeting. Public comment is also available. The entire agenda can be found here. To see the schedule and agenda for all upcoming city meetings, click here

And Finally

Chloe Finds a Loving Home in CD4

The highly publicized story of Chloe, a severely abused and badly injured dog found in downtown Long Beach, came to a very happy ending last Friday as she found a home in our 4th council district. Thanks to the generous and very big hearts of Maryanne and Doug "Tiny" James, Chloe will now be pampered and surrounded by a loving family. Maryanne and Doug even adopted another dog, Beatrice, who will be Chloe's companion. Kate Karp covered the story in this LBPost article. KTLA 5 was on hand last Friday (click photo below) to broadcast the moment Chloe arrived at her new home.
