The City of Long Beach is seeking an experienced professional, seasoned administrator and strategic manager to serve as the Manager of Government Affairs.
Ideally located on the Pacific Ocean, the City of Long Beach, California (population 462,257) is frequently described as a series of strong, diverse interwoven small communities within a large city. Enjoying an ideal Southern California climate, Long Beach is home to an abundance of cultural and recreational options. The Long Beach Convention Center, Aquarium of the Pacific, Queen Mary and the annual Toyota Grand Prix of Long Beach, plus a wide variety of other attractions (two historic ranchos, three marinas, and five golf courses), serve to draw 6.5 million visitors a year. The City is also home to California State University, Long Beach and Long Beach City College. Cal State Long Beach is the second largest university in the state and has consistently ranked among the top best value of public colleges in the nation. Serving the K-12 student population, the Long Beach Unified School District consistently ranks among the top 10 urban school districts in the country. Covering approximately 50 square miles, Long Beach is supported by a wide mix of industries with education, health and social services, manufacturing, retail trade, and professional services. While it offers all the amenities of a large metropolis, many say Long Beach has the added benefit of having maintained a strong sense of community and cohesiveness despite its size. Long Beach is the seventh largest city in California, and celebrates its vibrant diversity.

A superb climate, quality schools, a vibrant downtown, and a variety of neighborhoods help make Long Beach one of the most livable communities in the country.

CITY GOVERNMENT

Long Beach is a full-service Charter City governed by nine City Council members who are elected by district and a Mayor that is elected at-large. Elected officials also include the City Attorney, City Auditor, and City Prosecutor. The Council Members and the Mayor are subject to a three-term limit. The City Council appoints a City Manager and a City Clerk. The City Manager is responsible for the administration of all City departments, excluding those under the direction of a separately elected official, Board or Commission. Long Beach is a full-service City providing all traditional public services. Long Beach also maintains one of the world’s busiest seaports, which serves as a leading gateway for international trade. The City also has its own full-service commercial airport, a gas & oil (Energy Resources) Department, Water Department, and is one of only three cities in California with its own Health Department. Long Beach is supported by a total FY 2020 budget of approximately $2.8 billion, with the General Fund budget totaling $554 million. Nearly 6,000 full and part-time employees support municipal operations with the majority being represented by nine employee associations.

CITY MANAGER DEPARTMENT

The City Manager’s Office has 51 full-time and part-time employees focusing on City Council support, executive management, intergovernmental relations, public affairs, special events and filming, Citizen Police Complaint Commission objectives, Sustainability, and the Office of Innovation. The mission is to implement programs in accordance with City Council policies, the City Charter and Municipal Code, while providing organizational leadership for effective delivery of services to the community.
The Government Affairs Manager reports to the Deputy City Manager, and is responsible for producing and delivering legislative relations for the City of Long Beach. The Government Affairs Manager is responsible for a small Government Affairs team, which includes a Government Affairs Analyst and part-time Program Specialist, and manages contracts with state and federal lobbyist firms. The Government Affairs Manager is instrumental in compiling current information on state and federal legislative matters, and disseminating pertinent legislative information to City departments in a concise and succinct manner. This position also provides elected officials and management staff with timely information, analyses, technical assistance, and recommendations regarding various legislative issues, and related intergovernmental activities. The Government Affairs Manager represents the City at regional boards, guides legislative priorities, and ensures that the City’s legislative strategies are carried out by contracted legislative advocates. This position operates in a highly sensitive and political environment, dealing directly with the Mayor and City Council, City Management, federal and state elected officials and appointees, and the media.
