

Long Beach Parks, Recreation and Marine "Recreation Connection" Advertising Guide

The City of Long Beach, Department of Parks, Recreation and Marine (LBPRM) "Recreation Connection" promotes classes and activities to over 88,000 households in Long Beach each quarter. Copies are direct mailed to over 75,000 homes, and distributed to local libraries, City offices, park community centers, and to City offices in the cities of Seal Beach, Signal Hill, Los Alamitos and Lakewood. Published quarterly, the "Recreation Connection" has a minimum shelf life of three months and is an excellent vehicle for reaching families and active adults in the Long Beach community.

"Recreation Connection" advertising must be compatible with LBPRM goals including:

- Wellness and fitness
- Cultural enrichment
- Education and leisure experiences
- Tourism and community promotion
- Promotion of community-based services

Because space is limited, allocation will be prioritized as follows:

- Existing advertisers on annual contracts in good standing
- Camera-ready art submitted in acceptable format
- First copy from advertiser received within time frame
- Size availability
