

LONG BEACH POLICE DEPARTMENT

ADMINISTRATOR

Paula Gallegos

Administrator Paula Gallegos was appointed Personnel Administrator on March 6, 2017. Prior to her appointment, she worked for the Association of Orange County Deputy Sheriffs and collectively has over 30 years of experience dealing with human resource matters in the public sector. In her current assignment, Administrator Gallegos oversees human resource and payroll services for the police department's nearly 1,200 employees.

Administrator Gallegos holds a Master in Public Administration from Brandman University, a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration and Human Resources from California State University, Long Beach, and an Associate of Arts in Business Administration from Santa Ana Community College.

Administrator Gallegos is a member of the Society of Human Resource Management Association and an American Indian Education volunteer.

