

LONG BEACH POLICE DEPARTMENT

COMMANDER

Greg Schirmer

Commander Schirmer has been with the Long Beach Police Department for over 22 years and promoted to the rank of commander on September 12, 2020.

Commander Gregory Schirmer began his career at the LBPD as a police recruit in 1998. He was promoted to sergeant in 2007 and lieutenant in 2015. Commander Schirmer has held assignments as Bicycle Patrol Officer, Community Policing Officer, Public Information Officer, Financial Crimes Detective, Underwater Dive Team Officer, Investigation Bureau Administrative Sergeant, Basic Recruit Academy Sergeant, and Watch Commander. He most recently served as the Special Victims Section lieutenant and teaches various Basic Recruit Academy courses on topics ranging from racial profiling to criminal law.

Commander Schirmer holds a Bachelor of Arts from the California State University, Fullerton, and a Masters of Arts in Public Administration from the California State University, Long Beach. He also represents the LBPD on the board of the non-profit, Better Learning for All Students Today, and sits on the steering committee for the Long Beach Trauma Recovery Center.

