

LONG BEACH POLICE DEPARTMENT

COMMANDER

Melvin McGuire

Commander Melvin McGuire began his career with the LBPD in 1997. He moved to Youth Services as a detective in 2001, serving as the School Resource Officer at Poly High School.

He promoted to Sergeant in 2010, to Lieutenant in 2016 and to Commander in 2019. Commander McGuire has worked assignments that include Juvenile Gang Detective, Background Investigator, Administrative Sergeant for the Patrol Bureau, Internal Affairs, and South Division Patrol Lieutenant.

Commander McGuire is a member of the Command Officers Association and is an honor graduate of the Delinquency Control Institute, Sherman Block Supervisory Leadership Institute, and the POST Management Course.

