Section VII – Extension of Time Limits

Failure by management to reply to the employee's grievance within the time limits specified automatically grants to the employee the right to process the grievance to the next level. If an employee fails to appeal from one level to the next within the time limits established in this grievance procedure, the grievance shall be considered settled on the basis of the last decision, and the grievance shall not be subject to further appeal or reconsideration. All time periods specified in this procedure may be extended by mutual written consent of the aggrieved employee(s), Union staff, or Union representative (Union Officers, Shop Stewards, and SEIU Worksite Organizer) and the designated management representative.
