

CITY OF LONG BEACH
CLASSIFICATION SPECIFICATION

TITLE: CORROSION CONTROL SUPERVISOR

DEFINITION: Under direction, supervises the monitoring, maintenance and modification of underground gas pipeline cathodic protection systems (CPS).

EXAMPLES OF DUTIES:

- Performs field tests to gather data on CPS status;
- Evaluates data and implements system modification to meet U.S. Department of Transportation requirements;
- Utilizes a variety of specialized tools and equipment including: potentiometers, interrupters, Pearson Pipe Locators, Miller meters, copper sulphate electrodes and sol resistivity meters;
- Writes detailed specifications for contact work, equipment and materials necessary for CPS maintenance;
- Prepares and maintains accurate records pertaining to CPS;
- Deals regularly with the public and maintains liaison with a variety of private and governmental organizations;
- Monitors contracted well drilling activities;
- Selects, trains, assigns, supervises, and evaluates the work of subordinates;
- Performs other related duties as required.

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS:

Promotional. Two years service and current status as Gas Maintenance Supervisor or Construction Inspector with the Gas Department.

A valid California motor vehicle operator's license.

HISTORY:

Revision of Classification Specification dated 06/18/76

Approval/Adoption Dates: 04/28/83