CITY OF LONG BEACH

Parks Make Life Better!

Long Beach Parks, Recreation and Marine maintains 166 parks totalling over 3,100 acres. The Department provides hundreds of recreation programs and classes each year to "make life better" in many ways.

PARKS MAKE LIFE BETTER SOCIALLY

Long Beach Parks, Recreation and Marine offers after-school programs at 22 sites, eight school based programs to give youth places to play and make friends. Teens connect at six teen centers and older adults 50+socialize at seven Senior Centers.

PARKS MAKE LIFE BETTER PHYSICALLY

Youth and adult sports leagues, aquatics programs, fitness and sports classes, golf courses, tennis courts, and miles of bike and walking paths are available to improve the health and fitness of Long Beach residents.

PARKS MAKE LIFE BETTER MENTALLY AND EMOTIONALLY

Long Beach parks are places of beauty and serenity where one can relax and escape the hectic pace of daily life.

PARKS MAKE LIFE BETTER ENVIRONMENTALLY

Long Beach parks and open spaces preserve animal and plant habitats, trees reduce air pollution, and citizens engage in volunteer opportunities and educational programs to become effective stewards of the natural world.

Get involved at your local park this summer and experience all the ways that parks can make your life better.
