

LONG BEACH POLICE DEPARTMENT

COMMANDER

Michael Pennino

Commander Michael Pennino began his career with the Long Beach Police Department as a police officer in 1995. He was promoted to Sergeant in 2003 and to Lieutenant in 2010. Commander Pennino has served in various assignments throughout his career including Burglary Detail, A.T.F. Task Force, Sex Crimes Detail, Identity Theft Detail, Night Auto Theft Detail, Investigations Bureau Office, Watch Commander, Drug Investigations Section and the Police Department's Information Technology Section.

Commander Pennino has played a major role in the planning and implementation of the Department's body-worn camera program. He was also responsible for overseeing the configuration, training, and deployment of the Department's new handheld radios in 2019.

He holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business from the University of Southern California and a Master's Degree in Public Administration from California State University, Long Beach. He is a graduate of the Sherman Block Leadership Institute and holds a Peace Officer's Standards and Training management certificate.

